HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

THANK YOU FROM OUR REFUGEE OUTREACH MINISTERS, FAITH CONROY AND MARY SIBYL KRESS

Thank you to our Church family, friends, relatives and those who heard of our refugee family --the Tchibumbas from Tanzania. Your generosity and goodness have helped them get a good footing in our Cleveland area. They are thriving... Dad is working regularly, six of the eight children are in school (which was something they had asked about since they arrived). The baby is growing and is very pleasant with a willing smile and standing, too. Mom is very good at keeping the finances in order; knows what needs to be done and is learning to speak and read English and reading. All this since January! You have all taken a part in loving your neighbor and doing God's Corporal Works of Mercy.

Our first family from Sudan is also doing well. Dad is not only still working, but got his driver's license and a car... the smile is wide! The oldest children are attending the Newcomer's School and are loving it. Please look it up as it is quite the institution. Mom is doing well and still gives the best hugs. We visited them not too long ago.

Mary-Sibyl and I are grateful for all you have done to make the families feel welcome in their new home and all have said "we will never forget."
